

I live in the country and I use a dial up connection. I have no intention of paying for any BPL and I don't think you will find the rest of the rural residents very interested in the cost either. Save this money to improve the economy where it should be before our country goes completely down the toilet. If I wanted the city, I would live there.

Liz, KF4UQZ